DIGITAL

TRANSFORMATION

of youth organizations,
promoting peace and Human Rights

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS FROM SPAIN
International conference on digital transformation of youth organizations, promoting peace and Human Rights (15th of February, Barcelona)

Conference concept

The conference is the part of the long-term project TURN ONline, that is financed by Spanish National Agency under the Key Action 2 of ERASMUS PLUS Programme. The project is implemented by the team of seven youth NGOs: iWith.org (Spain), GEYC (Romania), INPRO (Poland), Alternativi International (Bulgaria), PROJUVEN (Spain), Intermedia Knowledge Transfer (Greece) and Egyeseke (Hungary) that hosts this training activity.

The project TURN Online is dedicated to promote the idea of digital transformation of youth NGOs, working in the field of peace building and Human Rights. More information about the project you can get here <http://turnonline.iwith.org>

The conference is a final public event within the project TURN ONline, where will be presented project results in the fields of digital management, online communication, e-learning and online activism. It will gather together youth workers from Spain, Hungary, Greece, Poland, Bulgaria and Romania.

Participants of the Conference will have an opportunity to reflect on the topic of digital transformation of youth NGOs and also to attend following workshops:

1. Digital tools for management: Trello, Asana and Freedcamp.
2. How to communicate peace and Human Rights.
3. Online activism: best practices and perspectives.
4. E-learning in youth field: how to create online course within your youth NGO.
